

Infrastructure Health and Safety Association – Updates

Jasmine Kalsi, ROH

The Infrastructure Health and Safety Association (IHSA) is Ontario's trusted health and safety resource

Safe and healthy workplaces free from incidents, injuries, illnesses, or fatalities.

Ontario's Health and Safety System

Ontario

Ministry of Labour, Immigration,
Training, and Skills Development

- Develops and enforces health and safety legislation
- Implements strategies to prevent injuries and illnesses
- Supports apprenticeships/skilled trades
- Supports industry training

wsib cspaat
ONTARIO

Workplace Safety and Insurance Board

- Compensation and return-to-work support for injured workers
- Funds the health and safety system through employer premiums

 Infrastructure Health
& Safety Association™

- Serves the construction, electrical utilities, and transportation sectors

 Workplace Safety
& Prevention Services®

- Serves the agricultural, manufacturing, and service sectors

 Public Services Health
& Safety Association™

- Serves provincial public service sectors, including education, healthcare, and government

 Workplace
Safety North™

- Serves the mining and forest-products industries

Workers Health & Safety Centre

- All-sectors training for workers, JHSC members, supervisors, and employers

Occupational Health Clinics for Ontario Workers Inc.
OHCO
Distributeur de services de santé et de sécurité au travail
OHCO.ca

- Focuses on detecting, preventing, and eliminating occupational diseases and injuries
- Promotes physical, mental, and social well-being for all workers

Recent Hygiene Assessments

- Insulation Fibre Assessment
- Drywall Exposure Assessment
- Utility Operations Noise Assessment
- Surface Mine Exposure Assessment – Air & Noise
- Noise Exposure Assessment – Major Shipping Hub

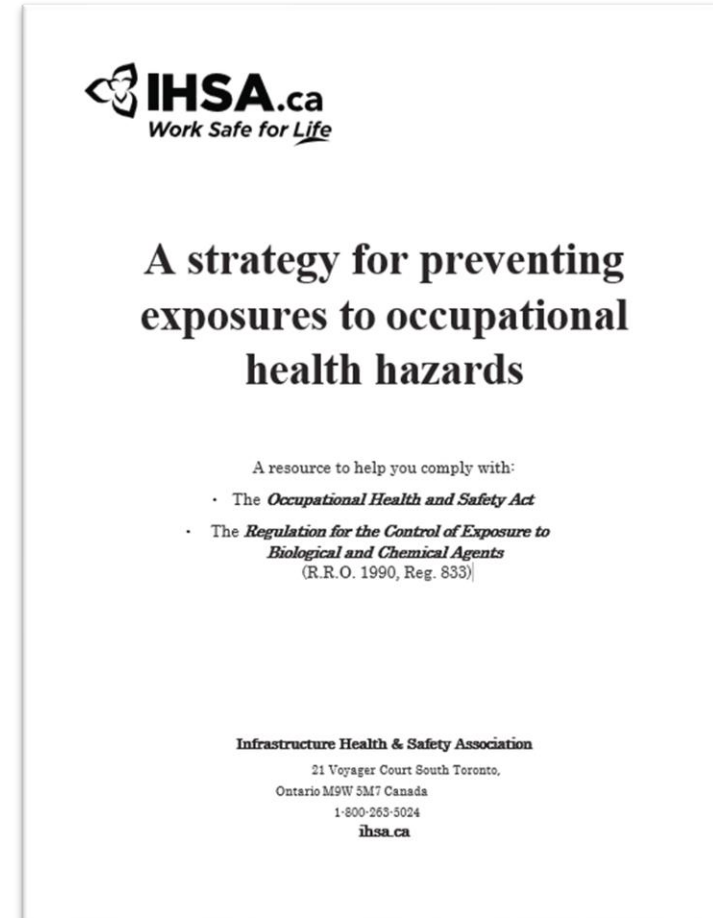

Occupational Disease Health & Safety Day

- November 27 2025
- Half-day session featuring a dynamic lineup of speakers who will share real-life stories and expert insight into workplace health and safety.
- AGENDA
 - 8:00 a.m. – Registration
 - 8:20 a.m. – Welcome, Introductions & Moment of Silence
 - 8:30 a.m. – Life of an Occupational Disease claim
 - 10:00 a.m. – Personal story of a workplace tragedy
 - 10:45 a.m. – Workplace medical monitoring program
 - 11:45 a.m. – Success story about navigating occupational health hazards in the workplace
 - 12:15 p.m. – Lunch & Networking (Hot lunch provided)
- Link to Register: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/occupational-disease-and-research-lmhsc-health-and-safety-day-tickets-1480829233099>

New and Upcoming Resources

- Legal Training Requirements for Safe Asbestos Work in Ontario (Ep. 113)
- Asbestos Awareness and Training Requirements for Workplace Safety (Ep. 99)
- Asbestos on Construction Projects – Reporting and Notification Responsibilities (Ep. 82)

NCSO[®] Certification

More than 1,000 safety leaders across Ontario have now been certified as National Construction Safety Officers!

Thank You!

Jasmine Kalsi, ROH
jkalsi@ihisa.ca